NED ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF NEW ENGLAND

Convention 2008
Farmington Marriott, CT
November 1, 2008

On behalf of the NED Alumni Association of New England, we have the pleasure of welcoming you and your family to our 2008 NED ALUMNI CONVENTION at the Marriott Hotel in Farmington, Connecticut on November 1, 2008.

This event will consist of a full day conference including panel discussions regarding issues of NED University in particular, and quality of engineering education in general, in Pakistan. The panel discussions will be held with high profile NEDians and other important dignitaries followed by an evening banquet featuring a keynote speaker, sumptuous Pakistani food, a musical evening and comedy show by noted South Asian artists.

We have arranged with the Farmington Marriott to accommodate the Alumni and their families at a discounted rate of $89 per night for Friday and Saturday. They will be holding a block of rooms for our Alumni until October 3, 2008. To get this discounted rate please mention at the time of booking that you are booking for the NED Alumni Association Event for November 1st. For more details and reservations please visit their website: Farmington Marriott OR call 1-800-678-1000.

To ensure that you do not miss this unique opportunity, please visit the nednec website to learn more about the details. To register for the convention please mail us the Convention Registration form, not later than October 20th.

We look forward to welcoming you and offering a dynamic, enjoyable, and highly meaningful convention experience. Please plan to attend this convention with your family and kindly circulate this flier to your friends.

For details please contact: Abul Islam
(President) at (860) 635-7740 (M–F, 8:30 AM–6:00 PM)

Aslam Siddiqui
(Vice President) at (860) 593-2527
Or

Email: Convention Coordinator

Your personal information is only provided to clearly identified official requestors affiliated or associated with the NED Alumni Association of New England For more information visit our website.